A "modest" social will be given by the women of the First Congregational church in their hall July 21 under auspices of the Worth League. Every person will be measured and according to height will be charged a admission to the amount of 2 cents a foot and 1 cent for each additional inch. No cream, cherries and eggs will be served without additional charge. Plenty of good entertainment will be provided in the program of games.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Wheeler celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary yesterday at their home, 102 West Noble.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were married at Leavenworth, Kan., in 1903. They lived in Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler's home on a farm in Lincoln County, Iowa, where they lived until the State fair time. Orlanville, Iowa, is their home.

Being a skilled agriculturist the two farmers, gold and silver, are successful ranchmen and expert sheep breeders. They obtain their feed from a local ranchman and while raising cattle for the market of Lawrence, Kansas, A. and C. are able to get good prices for their products.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler have six daughters, three sons and a grandchild, with four children, Mrs. O. G. Walker, Mrs. John R. Norton and daughters of Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Fred, Mrs. Anna, Mrs. Anna and daughter, Maxine, Mrs. and Mr. W. Wheeler and Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. McMillen, all of whom live in Lawrence.
